

CPG 90
SECTION 34
W. 1-1
E. 1 4 x 8

This photograph shows an archaeological excavation of a dirt and stone site. A red and white striped scale bar is positioned horizontally across the middle of the frame. Below the scale bar, a small black label with white text is placed on the ground. The label contains the following text: 'CPG 90', 'SECTION 34', 'W. 1-1', and 'E. 1 4 x 8'. The ground is composed of reddish-brown soil and several large, light-colored, irregularly shaped rocks or boulders are scattered around the excavation area.
